

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY, APRIL 9, 1922.

On Sale in Our Doubly Enlarged Ready-to-Wear Department—Third Floor.

The PALAIS ROYAL

The Shopping Center—11th and G Sts. Est. 1877 A. Lisner, Prop.

On Sale in Our Doubly Enlarged Ready-to-Wear Department—Third Floor.

An Unusually Worthy Offering Exquisitely Styled--High Quality Wraps, Capes and Coats

At $ 45

Last Moment Creations of Notable Originality

This is indeed a coat and wrap season, judging from the demand and each day this demand has been increasing.

The woman who has, through choice or necessity, placed her limit for a new coat or wrap at $45 will find this a rare opportunity, for these garments are very unusual values at $45. The materials, the linings, everything about them indicates a considerable higher price and they are the season's newest models for women and misses.

Made of those soft clinging materials, warm enough for cool evenings, but never too heavy for sunny days.

Materials are Poinciana, Poiret Twill, Pandora, Veldynes, Shawsheen, Orlandos, Twill cords and Canton Crepes

There are large soft collars to be worn high and snug about the throat or turned back, long flat Tuxedo collars, very wide sleeves, flaring lines in back, for even the coats are made to look like the capes.

Cobweb, Tan, Sorrento Blue, Caravan, Pheasant and plenty of the well liked and ever fashionable Navy Blue and Black.

Palais Royal—Third Floor